The 1976 Sterling Silver Christmas Ingot

Continuing an annual tradition, The Franklin Mint will issue a solid sterling silver Proof ingot for Christmas 1976. This beautiful new ingot bears an original work of art, "Christmas Landscape," created by the distinguished sculptor James Ferrell expressly for this issue. An appreciated gift . . . an important limited edition collectible to be issued only in 1976. Complete with deluxe presentation case.

THE 1976 CHRISTMAS INGOT. Solid Sterling Silver.

1000-grain Proof Ingot—1.75″ x .88″ x .29″ $30.00

500-grain Proof Ingot—1.75″ x .88″ x .145″ $15.00

RARE COINS .... at not so rare prices

We receive many requests for coins which are relatively scarce but this fact is not reflected by their price structure. An illustration would be early Lincoln cents or high grade Buffalo nickels which are very seldom encountered and yet are not overly expensive. The following list contains such coins which in reality should be selling for considerably more than our asking prices if only because of their respective rarity.

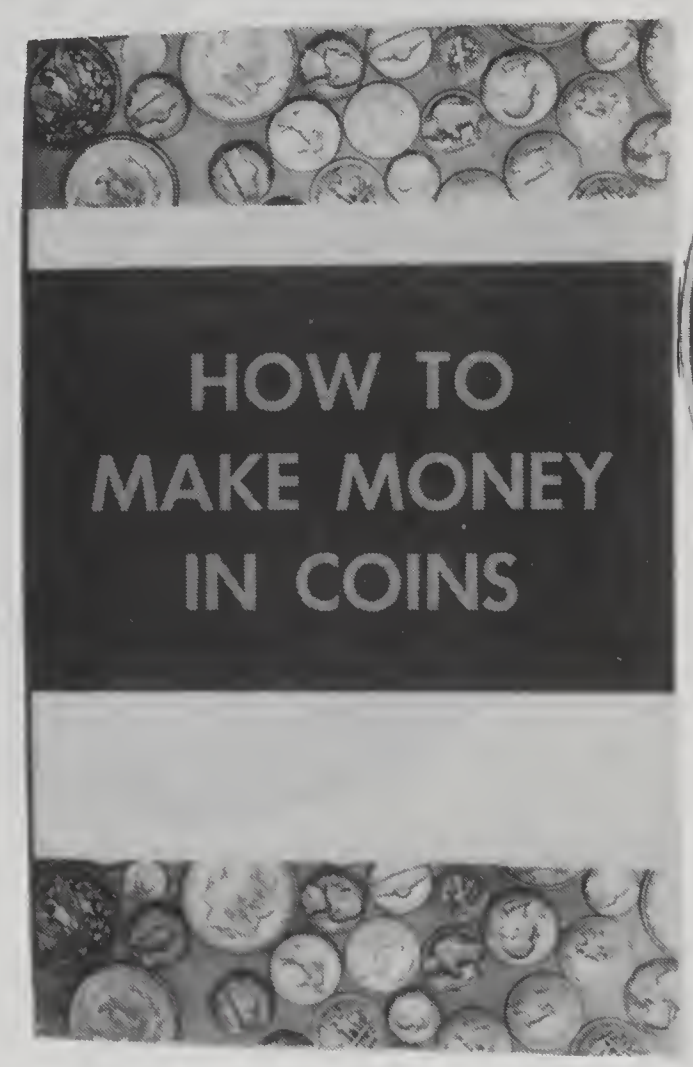
How To Make Money In Coins



John Kamin, a local recognized economist recently wrote this excellent volume which every person investing in the numismatic market should purchase. We read the book and agree that if you receive this magazine, it belongs on your shelf. We were particularly impressed with recommendations which caution the investor to use very conservative tactics before jumping into the market. We believe this volume to be important and supportive of our policies of investment.

The Crusader Hoard

BOHEMOND IV, 1201-1232
Silver Denier, Antioch Mint
Very Fine to Extremely Fine Condition

Bohemond of Otranto was the principle leader of the first crusade. Before the army could enter Palestine, the city of Antioch had to be captured. He was the first to attack the city and when it fell, Bohemond set himself up as the Prince of the new state. His descendant, Bohemond IV, 1201-1232, defended Antioch against Roupenidus and also took an active part in the Crusade of 1228-29. All the princes of Antioch struck coins there, most of which are quite scarce.

We have recently come upon a small hoard of less than 50 pieces of the silver deniers of Bohemond IV. They show an armored and helmeted bust facing left between a crescent and a star. The reverse has a short cross with a crescent in one of the angles.

No. 11-605 Silver Denier of Bohemond IV - $17.50 ea.

A Rare Opportunity

1878-P 7 Tail BU Silver Dollars

The 1878-P seven tail feather variety once thought to be the most common silver dollar has turned into a sought after coin with few being offered in the market place. We note wholesale transactions in the $15.00 level and they appear to be strong. Our price of $17.50 may appear low if our expectations are correct as you look back in a couple of years.

Order No. 11-607 1878-P 7 feathers: $17.50

1878-S BU Dollars

The '78-S is another example of the depleting stocks of first year Morgan silver dollars. When available in wholesale circles the coins go at $12.50 each. We have a small number and these will go for just $14.50 each. Again they are true B.U. specimens.

1878 Carson City

The '78CC, the most common of the rare Carson City mint dates is we feel ready to begin a series of upward moves to align its true value from a supply-demand point-of-view. We recommend one of these choice B.U. MS 65 coins at our special price.

Order No. 11-609
1878CC B.U. Dollars: $32.00

1879-O BU Dollars

1879-O Choice Brilliant Uncirculated silver dollars with well-struck breast feathers are very elusive and just not to be found. We have just a couple of rolls and they will go fast. We note wholesale transactions in the $25.00 range for strictly B.U. like these we offer. How can you miss?

Order No. 11-610
1879-O B.U. Dollars: $27.50

1885-O Proof-Like

Usually all we see are the normal strikings of the New Orleans Mint which appear with a dull, light strike and all details flat. These are not only well-struck, with full breast feathers and other details, but their surface must be examined to be believed. B.U. specimens go for about $10.00. Auctions indicate proof-like specimens around $30.00.

Mother's Day Issues

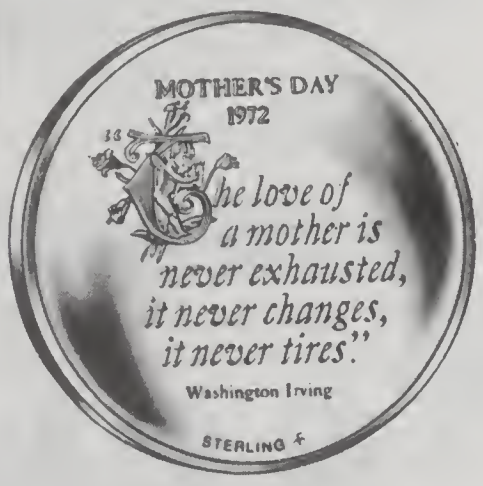
Medals shown actual size



THEME—The Franklin Mint's 1972 Mother's Day commemorative was issued as a special tribute to mothers of every generation, on the 100th anniversary of the first call for a Mother's Day in America. It was in 1872 that Julia Ward Howe—the famous author of the Battle Hymn of the Republic—first conceived the idea of a holiday of this kind.

No. 11-630 1972 Mother's Day. Silver prf. medal w/case: $10.00

ARTIST AND DESIGN—William Shoyer designed the 1973 Mother's Day commemorative to be a simple, eloquent expression of love. "The scene is a symbol of the tender bond between child and mother: a child reaching to its mother with an offering of a bouquet of daisies," Shoyer explains. "Daisies, I think, are especially appropriate because they're a child's kind of flower . . . So, for me, this concept perfectly symbolizes the idea of Mother's Day." The commemorative was sculptured by Ernest Schroeder. The reverse bears a quotation from the Scottish author Thomas Carlyle.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY COMMEMORATIVE COVER

1971 Coinage of Panama

ISSUER—This important silver coin was issued by the Republic of Panama in 1971. The Franklin Mint struck coins for circulation and was the exclusive minter for both Proof and Brilliant Uncirculated specimens of this Twenty Balboas coin.

THEME—The coin was struck to commemorate—and serve as an appropriate tribute to—the 150th Anniversary of Central American Independence. Its design celebrates the day in 1821 when Panama broke free from Spanish rule and joined Gran Colombia, the Latin American union formed by Simon Bolivar.

ARTIST AND DESIGN—Sculptors Harold Faulkner and Gilroy Roberts participated in the creation of the designs for this unique coin. Faulkner's portrait of Simon Bolivar—"The Great Liberator" of Latin America—appears on the obverse. Roberts' reverse design features the Panamanian Coat of Arms.

FEATURES—At the time of its issue, this was the largest and heaviest coin minted in the 20th century. It measures 61mm (2.4 inches) in diameter, and contains 2000 grains—more than four troy ounces—of solid sterling silver. This was the second coin minted by The Franklin Mint for Panama. The first was the 1970 Five Balboas coin commemorating the XI Central American and Caribbean games.

Promissory Notes From 1830

HAVE TIMES REALLY CHANGED

After examining these interesting promissory notes written back in the 1830's, we find that even during the days of plentiful natural resources people were still forced to seek the services of the local banker. We admit that the terminology used back then was a little different, but these original notes are in great condition and with their interesting official appearing heading "United States of America", they are perfect for framing. They even offer a bit of off-white, almost yellow casting with frayed edges and are sure to attract much attention by all who pass by. We have a very limited quantity of these notes and we believe they are priced to sell at just $6.50 each.

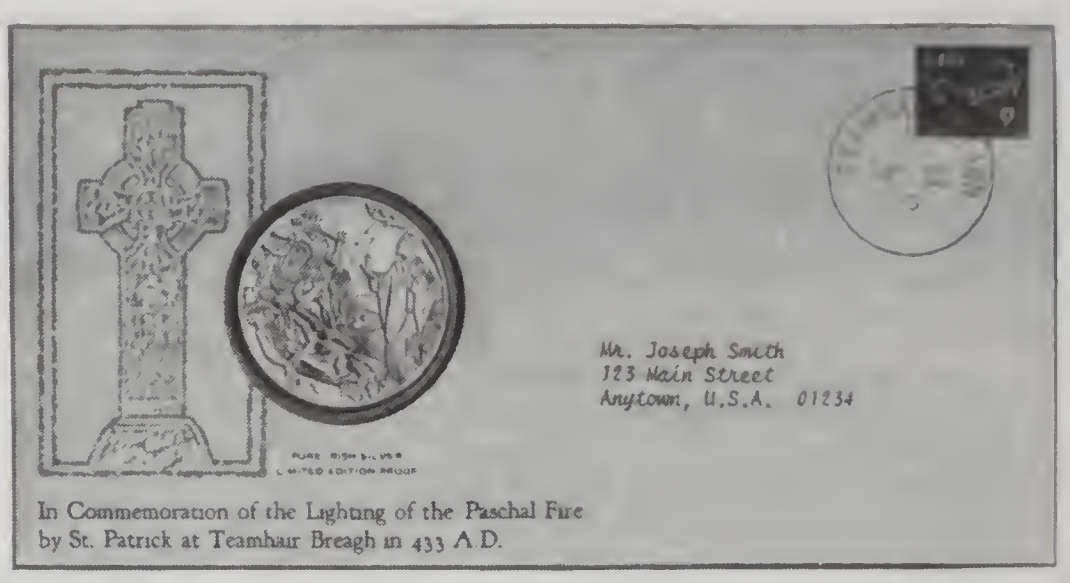
THE 1973 ST. PATRICK'S DAY MEDALLIC COMMEMORATIVE COVER

THE SECOND ANNUAL ST. PATRICK'S DAY MEDAL IN A COMMEMORATIVE COVER



In Commemoration of the Lighting of the Paschal Fire by St. Patrick at Teamhair Breagh in 433 A.D.

THEME—At Easter time in the year 433 A.D., Ireland's Patron Saint achieved his first victory over the pagan Druids by lighting the Paschal Fire and thus bringing the symbolic light of Christianity to Ireland. This medallic commemorative cover contains the second annual St. Patrick's Day Medal, which pays tribute to this historical event.

ARTIST—Mrs. Gabriel Hayes O'Riordan, the famed Irish artist who designed three of the six coins of the Republic of Ireland's new decimal currency, is the sculptor of the medals for this annual series.

DESIGN—The medal shows St. Patrick calling down the wrath of Heaven against the Druids who came to stop him from lighting the Paschal Fire at Teamhair Breagh (Tara), legendary seat of the Irish kings. The reverse depicts the map of Ireland showing the location of Tara.

FEATURES—These unusual annual medals are minted from pure (.999 fine) Irish silver, making this the first series of medals of any kind ever made of pure Irish silver. Because relatively little silver has ever been found in Ireland, most Irish silver products contain silver mined in other countries. But a special lot of pure Irish silver was reserved for this issue. Moreover, each silver medal was combined with a special commemorative cachet and bears the St. Patrick's Day—March 17, 1973

1923 ITALY COMMEMS

Scott No. 143-6 Issued to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the Propagation of the Faith. Practically this entire issue was delivered to speculators. Despite this fact, the issue is quite attractive and worthy of inclusion in any collection. Naturally, all stamps are in fine mint condition.

Scott Catalog Value: $13.00

Order No. 11-677 1923 Italian Commemoratives: $8.50

Scott No. 626-33

Any tourist to Italy can't help but notice that all of the stamps in use are these little regulars. They all tend to look alike and you're never sure if what you're seeing is what you have or what you need. This set is a case in point. They look just like all of the others so collectors passed them by. Little did they anticipate that now, 22 years later these little gems would catalog for $65.81. Hindsight is great but get a set for your collection – before prices go any higher. All stamps are in fine mint condition.

1923 ITALIAN SEMI-POSTALS

Scott No. B17-9

Issued in commemoration of the anniversary of the March of the Fascisti on Rome, the excess over the postal value of the stamps was given to the Benevolent Fund of the Black Shirts (the Italian National Militia). This has always been a popular set – maybe due to its large size; possibly due to the politics involved. In any case you will want to add a set to your collection.
Scott Catalog Value: $36.00

Order No. 11-680 1923 Italian Semi-Postals: $20.50

1949 ITALY UPU

1975-76 GERMAN & BERLIN DEFINITIVES

Scott No. 1170-83 + 9N359-72 Modern German definitives have a habit of increasing in value at a steady pace. We consider ourselves fortunate in having a quantity of these sets to offer our readers. All stamps are in fine mint NH condition and picture a range of subjects from trains to planes to an oil drilling platform. Order a set today and thank yourself later as prices rise.

FIRST DAY COVER CLUB

the easy way to collect

Those of you who are already members of our F.D.C. Club know its many advantages (discounts, special offers, etc.). For those of you who don't, let me tell you what services we provide.

First, we automatically send you all U.S. First Day Covers issued in the course of the year. This includes all regular, commemorative and airmail stamps, aerogrammes, postal cards and booklet panes. We also provide such covers as Inauguration and other special event covers. This is done on an automatic basis, periodically 3-4 times a year. The cost is either deducted from your deposit, or charged to your Mastercharge or Bank-Americard. There is no cost for the service — you just pay for the covers.

We also provide coverage for the issues of the United Nations, both New York and Geneva. While the U.N. doesn't issue many covers (only 4-5 per year) they are quite attractive. Those of you interested in taking advantage of this service should let us know right away so we can start these U.N. covers off with the first 1977 issue.

Over 350 collectors are presently members of our F.D.C. Club. Why don't you join today?

$15.00 deposit is required for F.D.C. Club membership. Let us know which covers you wish to receive.

1928 INDIAN MOTORCYCLE COVERS

It doesn't matter if you like Indians, Motorcycles, stamps or just covers. This set of two covers are the most spectacular we have seen in years. Only 388 of these covers were made 38 years ago and we doubt if they have been seen since. We won't say more about these covers except two covers represent the complete round trip Green Bay to Milwaukee and back. The whole story of the trip is printed on the back of the envelopes. Send in your order the day you read this since we are sure we could sell 500 of these covers — if we only had them.

PANAMA PROOF SETS

(One to a customer please)

This issue was struck by the U.S. Mint for the Panamanian Government. Our supply was just enhanced by a major purchase in the southeastern part of the U.S. and is reflected by our special prices. The Hosch Catalog "Official Guide to World Proof Coins" places a value of $25.00 on this set, but we are literally dumping them at half price. No dealer orders will be accepted on these proof sets . . . this is a special offer for "Money Talks" readers only.

Order No. 11-709 1968 Panama Proof Sets: $12.50 each

1957 PROOF SET

We have always shown some preference for this set since most of these sets dried up in the past couple of years and nothing prevents some strong advances from materializing in the immediate future. Our price is so special that we must limit you to ONE SET PER CUSTOMER. Only a couple of hundred sets are available at this wholesale price.

Order No. 11-710 1957 PROOF SET: $5.50 each

1959 PROOF SETS

Another bargain we have in the U.S. Proof Set field is the 1959 set. This set is mint packaged and from a total issue of almost 1¼ million sets. Current retail levels have been in the $7.00 range but our special price is only $6.00 Order quickly and avoid disappointment. (one to a customer)

Order No. 11-711 1959 PROOF SET: $6.00

1964 PROOF SETS

This is the one and only silver Kennedy Proof Set. Still depressed from the times when it sold at the $25.00 level we feel that it won't be too long until prices start to jump. We have a limited number available at the very special price of only $5.50 per set. (one to a customer)

Order No. 11-712 1964 PROOF SET: $5.50

1960 Small Date Proof Sets

Here is another super buy which we have never been able to offer our buyers who read "Money Talks", since it is one of the true rarities of our time. The rare small date variety on the cent is recognized most easily by the short tail of the "6". If you're not sure about being able to recognize this variety and if you place an order we will supply, when requested, a large date cent in BU condition for use in comparing the two varieties.

Our special price is just $19.50 each. Order promptly as supplies are limited.

POOR

This rare coil is fast becoming unobtainable. There are many reasons for this. One is that few were made originally. Another is that nobody knew about them when they were issued, so collectors didn't stock up. We have just purchased a group of these coils from a speculator who, over the years, purchased every pair he could find both from dealers and in auction. We know many of our readers have been searching without success for this coil. Don't hesitate to take advantage of this offer as it is a sure sell-out. Yunnan Republican Silver Coins

Probably the most interesting and popular coins to collect, are those which were struck to commemorate a time in history. Numismatists, for years have assembled collections of coins merely for their commemorative aspect as opposed to their rarity and great value. Inevitably, these dedicated numismatists become scholars of their area of study and are free to challenge the knowledge of their peers as well as established authors in their field of study.

We would like to present an interesting challenge to those who are daring. We have acquired a small hoard of 50 cents (3 Mace 6 Candareens) coins of the Yunnan Province, undated (struck approximately 1916). These specimens feature the portrait of Tang Chi Yao, once Governor of Yunnan. The condition of these coins are Fine to Very Fine. Certainly these coins will provide hours of research pleasure discovering the who, what, and where of this commemorative issue.

Order No. 11-739 YUNNAN PROVINCE - 50 Cents, N.D.
Fine - Very Fine: $7.50 each

PERSIAN EMPIRE
Silver Sigloi Hoard

Darius I, 521 thru time of Artaxerxes, 359 B.C.

The first mention of actual coins found in the Bible refers to Persian coins carried out of Babylon when the Jews returned to Palestine (Ezra 2:68-69). These coins, both gold and silver, depicted the Persian king kneeling in battle, holding a bow and spear. Twenty of the silver coins, called Sigloi, were equivalent to one gold coin called a Daric. When the Jews rebuilt the temple, under Ezra and Nehemiah, the chief men among them contributed 61,000 gold Darics and 5,000 pounds of silver Sigloi. These Persian coins remained the principle medium of exchange in Palestine and the surrounding areas until Alexander the Great conquered the Persians in 331 B.C.

We have recently acquired a choice selection of these silver Sigloi, the first Bible coins. Because they were "coins of the realm", silver Sigloi are usually found in well worn condition and heavily counter-stamped (i.e. bankerstamps), BUT NOT THESE . . . from a hoard of 300 pieces we have carefully selected a handful of only the finest specimens. When encountered in this unusually fine state of preservation these coins fetch $75.00 to $100.00 each or more. We are pleased to offer select Choice Fine to Very Fine specimens at only $50.00 each. Whatever your collecting interest, you should certainly have one or more of these historical coins to enhance your collection.

Order No. 11-740 Silver Sigloi of Persian Empire: $50.00

ARMENIA:

Silver Coronation Trams of Levon I

Levon, son of Roupeu II, Prince of Armenia, succeeded his father in 1187 as Prince Levon II. Ambitious to gain the title of King, he sent emissaries to the Pope and to the Holy Roman Emperor. In order to gain support for a projected Crusade, the Pope agreed to grant Levon a crown and title of King. On January 6, 1199 he was crowned by the Armenian Catholicos, Gregory Abirad, in the presence of the Papal Legate and the Chancellor of the Holy Roman Empire.

In order to commemorate this occasion, the new King Levon I struck special coins showing the Coronation on the obverse and two lions holding a long cross on the reverse. We have been fortunate to secure a small quantity of these interesting commemorative coins in Very Fine condition.

Order No. 11-741 Silver Coronation Trams of Levon I: $37.50 each

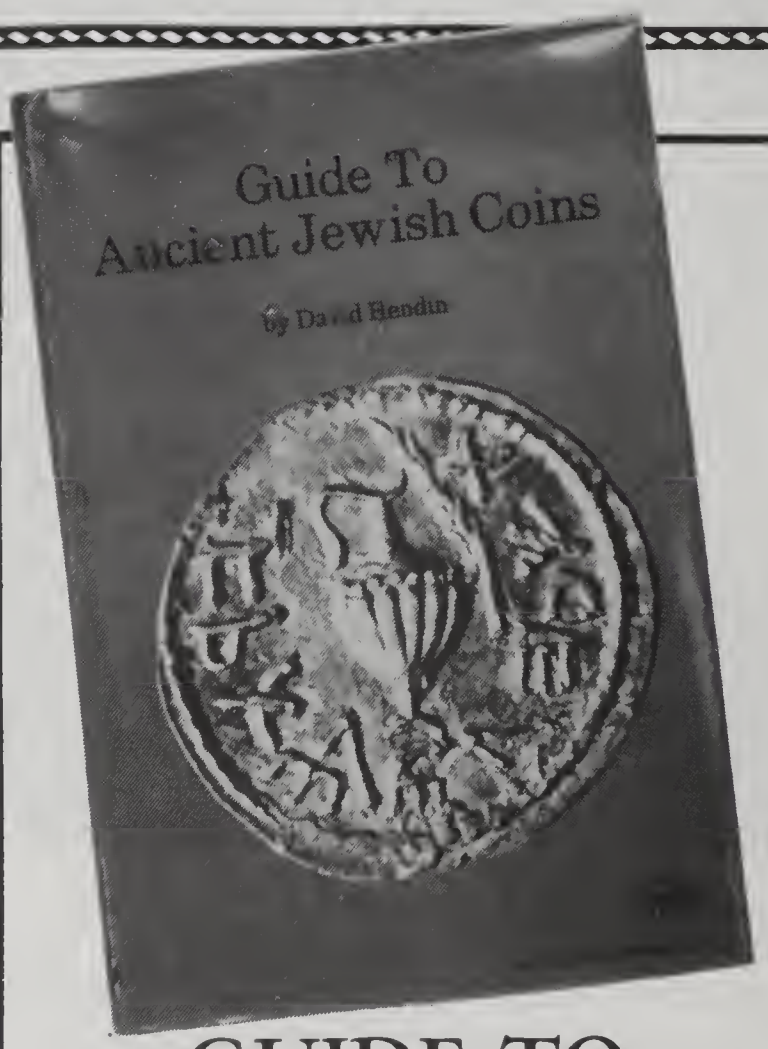
A Hoard from the Medieval Turks Mahomed II, The Conqueror, 1451-1481

Silver Akce, 9-12 mm., 0.8-1.0 grams
Dated A.H. 848, 855, and 865
Very Fine Condition

Soon after his accession to the throne, Mahomed II set about the realization of his long cherished project, the conquest of Constantinople. He began by building the fort known as Rumeli Hissar on the European side of the Bosporus. In 1453 he began the seige of the city. Constantine Palaeologus, the last occupant of the Imperial Throne, took every measure that the courage of despair could devise for the defense of the doomed city. His appeal to the Pope for aid fell upon deaf ears. With little more than 8,000 fighting men, he faced the Turkish horde of 200,000 zealots. On the 28th of May, 1453, Constantine himself was slain and the Turks overran the city. Thus ended the last remnant of the once invincible Roman Empire, which lasted for over fourteen centuries.

The principle coin used to pay the sultan's troops was a small silver piece weighing about one gram. This coin was called an Akce and was minted in large quantities. We have been fortunate to obtain a small hoard of these mementos of the conqueror of the Byzantine Empire.

Order No. 11-742 One silver Akce: $3.50 Set of three, one of each date: $10.00



GUIDE TO ANCIENT JEWISH COINS

Here is a new and greatly simplified catalogue of the coins of ancient Judaea. In addition to photographic plates, all the varieties are illustrated by line drawings. The archaic Hebrew legends are transcribed exactly as shown on the coins and are transliterated into modern Hebrew. This excellent work also includes the Roman coins struck in the west with references to the Jewish people and the capture of Judaea under Vespasian. The catalogue closes with a brief review of Jewish City coins. A price guide is included to give the collector some idea of what these coins are worth on todays market. This catalogue is well worth inclusion in any numismatic library, even for those who haven't yet begun to collect this fascinating series of coins.

No. 11-743 Guide to Ancient Jewish Coins $20.00

"The First Christmas" – the obverse sculptured by Carol Yocum, the reverse by Jane Lunger – is a sensitive portrayal of the Nativity in enduring beauty of medallic art.

1897 BU Silver Dollars

The 1897 - P silver dollar struck at the Philadelphia Mint is included in most Want Lists. With a total mintage of 2.823 million pieces, this issue ranks as a potential winner in investment circles. We have carefully watched this issue for some time and notice that few, if any, sales are being recorded, while demand remains high. This, along with the fact that the issue has been until recently only accepted as a common date coin, makes its potential for increase very high. All coins are from original rolls. ONLY ONE TO A CUSTOMER.

SUPERIOR TO DISTRIBUTE INSPIRATION MEDAL

A numismatic first! — Medallic Art Company, America's preeminent fine art medalists, with the cooperation of Frank Eliscu, distinguished American sculptor, has developed the first two-part art medal ever produced in this country.

The obverse features Pegasus, the winged horse, (symbol of artistic inspiration in early Greek mythology) being released from the hand of God. The reverse portrays man and his inspiration united in peaceful harmony.

But while every medal has two sides, Eliscu's has four. His "inspiration" has two additional surfaces within itself. As the medal is parted, the inside reveals, via interlocking concave and convex images, a dramatic portrayal of man and his struggle to capture and control inspiration.

"Inspiration", a truly beautiful and unusual 2 1/4" medal,is now being offered to collectors in extremely limited editions of Pure Silver. Each is attractively packaged in its own handsome jeweler's case. As the first two-part medal ever commercially produced in this country, it is sure to evoke widespread interest and technical acclaim, and demand will be great.

WE HAVE A GIFT FOR YOU

If you place your order for any coins or numismatic merchandise ask for your free bicentennial Indian store card struck in bronze. Store cards were popular during the Civil War Period when there was a critical shortage of cents. Due to this shortage shop keepers struck their own store card tokens which were generally accepted for "one cent" each. All you have to do is ask for yours with any coin order. REMEMBER our $3.00 minimum oreder. We regret that orders for philatelic items cannot qualify due to the problems of shipment. For our stamp customers we offer these at 50 cents each with any order.
